Watch the Video!

HÆRFEST COFFEE was first inspired in 1998 by Founder Toby Foreman's brother, Ethan.

Ethan, who had an intellectual disability worked alongside Toby for 8 years while at Diedrich Coffee in Irvine, CA. During this time of watching his brother thrive and grow in confidence and sense of value, in earnest Toby felt a conviction to intentionally create a coffee roasting company to employ those who are often overlooked in the workforce

Peru / Into My Thoughts
by Dale Picklesimer

Eight years later that sense of conviction took on another level of purpose and inspiration when Toby and his wife Cheri, welcomed their second child, Reid, into the world.

In the delivery room the doctors shared, “Your son is showing signs of Down Syndrome”. Through tears and resolve they promised each other to move forward on HÆRFEST COFFEE because, “Reid and his friends will need jobs someday”.

Since its inception 20 years ago, and then with Reid’s birth, HÆRFEST has evolved into what it is today with every aspect of the company intentionally created to provide a job for those with disabilities; everything from the artwork on the bags being commissioned by individuals with a disability, to roasting, to grinding, to packaging, delivery, as well as home-based microbusinesses for those unable to work outside of the home.

HÆRFEST Founder Toby Foreman showcases the artwork “Flower” by Nga Tran

Unique Loom x HÆRFEST Collection pairs eight talented artists who are part of Haerfest Coffee Co, which is a complete sensory experience. The artists also design their company’s packaging, as well as roast and pack the coffee in their Davidson, NC facility.

HÆRFEST (pronounced “harvest” from an Old English variant) is a coffee outreach company that utilizes the HÆRFEST of coffee to impact lives and create positive change.

The rug design collaboration is a first for both brands and yields eleven powerful and exquisitely colorful designs that are available in a variety of sizes. The talented artists from this new collaboration also create HÆRFEST company’s coffee packaging, as well as roast and pack the coffee at their Davidson, North Carolina facility.
